

President's comments

It's so nice to have some warm spring weather! Hope you all are enjoying your horses and catching up on outside chores.

Ohio Equine Affaire was held on April 12- 15 and it was great. This newsletter includes a great write up about it written by Marianne Springer. Many thanks to all who helped and participated – especially those who brought horses to share with the Equine Affaire attendees. The horses were wonderfully presented and were well received.

MOWHA 2018 High Point rules are in this newsletter. There are no major changes except that it is no longer necessary to nominate your horse. We will get the points for horses owned by our members from the show results. The shows that count for MOWHA points are listed in the calendar. Horses must attend one of MOWHA's two shows – the Ohio Classic or the Fall Round Up to be eligible for awards.

Trail Ride Rules – will be on the website soon.

2018 MOWHA Membership dues are now due! Please join us for 2018. A renewal form is enclosed in this newsletter.

I hope to see you soon.Mag

Check out www.mowhaonline.com

Be sure to check out Mid Ohio's website for any information you might need about the club, shows of interest, other events, contacts and dates. Membership and HP rules are there as are links to the show information for the shows in our calendar.

Also, please remember that members can advertise for free on the website....AND you can include photos and even embed a video!

Sounds like we need to utilize our website a lot more. MOWHA is also on Facebook! Thanks to Marianne Springer all of her work on this!

Ohio Classic Horse Show – June 22 & 23

The showbill for the Ohio Classic is enclosed. Please plan to attend and make your hotel and stall reservations as soon as possible. We will announce the judge soon.

We need your help to put on this show! Help specifically needed is:

Office help – We have relied so much on Susie Mackanos however, due to her new job, she will not be able to help as much at this show, especially on Friday.

Help at entry gate – this is a great job for someone who wants to see the show and visit with friends. Can help for one day, two days or a session.

Silent Auction – need someone to organize, monitor and close out the silent auction. If there is no one to take charge of it, we won't have one.

DQP table – we may need a scribe for the DQP.

General help with bedding stalls on Thursday and setting up center ring on Friday and tear down after the show.

I know it always gets done but it there are fewer and fewer people doing it...and those people are getting tired. We need to have the work spread among more people, if we are to be able to continue putting on these shows. Please contact Mag at magranft@hotmail.com or 614-946-7046. Thank you.

Great News! Saddles can be on at inspection!

USDA has announced that HIO's will be permitted to do DQP inspections with saddles on! The stirrups must be securely up so as not to hit the DQP. For Western saddles, stirrups should be tied over the saddle. DQPs can request that the saddle be removed, should they feel it necessary.

This is great news and will make showing much easier for all and reduce delays! WHOA was active in working with the USDA to get this change approved and we thank them for their efforts. YEA!!

EQUINE AFFAIR 2018

Each year in April, we actively participate at Equine Affaire, a national equine exposition held in Columbus, OH. This is an excellent venue for us to showcase our wonderful breed to the public thru direct hands on interactions at the breed booths/promotion stalls, and with under saddle demonstrations in the ring.

Once again, Mid Ohio Walking Horse Association, with the invaluable work of association president Mag Ranft, did a great job promoting the Tennessee Walking Horse with NWHHA and TWHBEA in breed booth/promotion stalls, and wonderfully choreographed under saddle demos.

Mag Ranft arranged for a total of 16 horses to represent the breed. There were 11 horses for 4 separate under saddle demonstrations and breed booth/promotional stalls, and another 5 horses dedicated to breed booth/promotional stalls. There were also 2 in-hand demonstrations with public Q&A. Along with the horses, came the owners from states including Ohio, Wisconsin, Tennessee and North Carolina; and trainers Jim Potter and Kyle Elliott from Ohio, and Mikal Spooner from North Carolina. Also excellent youth representation this year with 4 youth riders who did a great job promoting the TWH.

The weather this year was beautiful for most of the event. Sunday the rains came, but an advantage to lousy weather outside is more horse lovers inside to shop, attend clinics, learn about different breeds and clubs...and most importantly, learn about NWHHA and the wonderful sound, flat shod Tennessee Walking Horse!!

Owners, trainers and volunteers worked hard all weekend to display the horses, answer questions and promote the breed to so many of the 300,000 to 400,000 folks who attended Equine Affaire each year. It was a great opportunity to share the multiple aspects and opportunities with a TWH from rail to trail, to connect with fellow TWH lovers from many states....and promote our Ohio shows!!

Many, many thanks to all of those who helped in front and behind the scenes and to our TWHBEA friends who shared the aisle. Special thanks Stacey Hotchkiss for once again performing her magic on the saddle demo scripts, and to Allison Thorson for the great music compilation for the under saddle demos.

Promotion of the TWH is one of our purposes, and Equine Affaire is a great opportunity to do just that !!Horses in under saddle breed demonstrations:

Extra Classic - owned by Mag Ranft – ridden by Jim Potter

Leonardo DiCaprio – owned by Kelli Gushert – ridden by Kyle Elliott

Madam Houdini – owned by Thorsports Farm – ridden by Sarah Farringer

Additional horses in promotion stalls:

Whoopi's Promise Angel – Wendy Kaufman

Ozone Alert – Marianne Springer

Proud Truth – Angela Lewis

Spice of Luxury – Angela Lewis (also shown in-hand in a breed demo by Derek Lewis)

National Walking Horse Association (NWHHA) Booth Manager – Mag Ranft brought everything, from merchandise to the TV with NWHHA videos, and handled set up along with help from Wendy Kaufman, Jim Potter and Kyle Elliott. And then, tear down along with help from Jim Potter, Kyle Elliott, Marianne Springer, Susie Mackanos and Megan Jenkins....all back into Mag's trailer in the rain, for Mag to haul back home.

Equine Affaire Coordinator – Mag Ranft arranged for horses, scripts, music, set up breed stalls.

Booth Help & more – Mag Ranft, Wendy Kaufman, Marianne Springer, Kelli Gushert,

Breed Demo Scripts – Stacey Hotchkiss

In 2019, Equine Affaire will be held April 11-14. We hope you are able to attend and get a chance to stop by the NWHHA booth...we would love to see you. If you are interested in becoming involved with Equine Affaire and the MOWHA group, contact Mag Ranft: 614-946-7046 or magranft@hotmail.com

5. If a horse's name is changed, the Point Committee must be notified. If a horse is sold, the Point Committee must be notified. Points will transfer if the new owner is a MOWHA member or becomes a MOWHA member within 30 days of the sale.
6. MOWHA sponsored shows will count as double point shows. All other MOWHA affiliated shows will count as single point shows. Championship classes will count as double the points for that show.
7. If a nominated horse is cited under the provisions of the Horse Protection Act for bilateral sensitivity by a licensed DQP or a representative of the USDA, it shall lose all eligibility for MOWHA High Point Awards for that calendar year.
8. The Point Committee reserves the right to combine or divide divisions for awards based on the number of horses qualified in that Section. No less than four places will be offered in each division, except in the Promotion Section which will offer at least two places. Point totals will be available at the Awards Banquet.
