18th ANNUAL GENIUS DAY 2011

SATURDAY, MAY 7th from 1-4 P.M.

Come rain or shine!

Enjoy demonstrations, activities and free rides for "children of all ages".

Competitive Shooting from Horseback

Lisa Dicamillo of Colorado will demonstrate Cowboy Mounted Shooting from horseback using Sashay, her Tennessee Walking Horse. Lisa, at last mention, is a Senior Ladies Level IV in the Cowboy Mounted Shooters of America. Cowboy mounted shooting is a rapidly growing event across the United States. Excitement abounds with the smell of gunpowder.

Linda Starnes, husband Larry, and Traveling Time, a World Versatility Champion Tennessee Walking Horse, from Brownsville, Kentucky, will honor us once again with a Parelli style ride and the opening ceremonies.

Charlie Roach, Smithfield, Kentucky, will emcee our day. Charlie is a renowned trainer of World Champion-ranked Tennessee Walking Horses and is willing to share his experience and knowledge answering any equine questions.

Tim Scarberry and his friend, Chuck Teague, will be joining us to provide a presentation of re-educating a learned horse. Neither men will know the horse he gets until it's brought into the arena. SURPRISE !

Rose Miller of Goshen, Indiana, has used her love of equines to author the book, "The Horse That Wouldn't Trot", sharing her personal memoirs of adventures and training concepts. She will join us to offer her book about Tennessee Walking Horses and its subsequent sequel about mules in signed copies.

Come and enjoy!
